From Lawns to Habitat: Sharing Your Space With Wildlife

February 16, 2008 @ 1 pm

Visitor Center

Chase away those winter blues! This is an indoor presentation where you will learn how to create a nature-inspired habitat in your own backyard. Inspiration, planning, and a love of nature are all you need to get started!

Morning Bird Walk

March 22nd

April 5th & 19th

May 3rd

Meet at the Visitor Center @ 7:30 am

Beginning and expert birders alike will enjoy the chorus of birds that awaken each morning in Prince William Forest Park. Bring good walking shoes, weather-appropriate clothing and binoculars.
